CITIES OF NUREMBERG AND SAARBRUECKEN ARE ATTACKED IN FORCE BY HUNDREDS OF BRITISH BOMBERS AT NIGHT; 30 BRITISH PLANES LOST; BERLIN ACKNOWLEDGES RAID

Nuremberg, Scene of Traditional Nazi Gatherings, Has Been Converted Into War-Production Center—Indicated
That Force of 600 or More British Planes
Were Over German-Held Territory

(By International News Service)

LONDON, Aug. 29—Hundreds of British night bombers blasted two more Reich industrial centers in the mounting aerial offensive against Germany, the Air Ministry disclosed today with the announcement that Nuremberg and Saarbruecken were attacked in force.

Berlin acknowledged the raids and claimed that 36 bombers were shot down, indicating that a force of 600 to 700 planes were over the German industrial area for the second successive night.

Nuremberg, traditional stronghold of the Nazi party and scene of Nazi gatherings and momentous addresses by Adolf Hitler, has been converted into a war-production center since the war lords took over Germany.

The targets there were the great tank factory, aluminum works, heavy electrical equipment plants and a railway repair shop.

Saarbruecken is one of Germany's chief industrial towns and an important communications center.

Both towns have been free of the RAF wrath since November, 1940.

Saarbruecken is on the French border, 300 miles from London. Nuremberg is 200 miles to the east in the very heart of Germany.

The Air Ministry admitted that 30 British planes were lost, and on the basis of recent losses of between 4 and 5 percent of the attacking force, the RAF sent at least 600 bombers against the two German strongholds.

This at least matched the number estimated to have bombed the Reich Thursday night when 39 bombers failed to return.

The air offensive against Germany is being stepped up to an unprecedented tempo with fighter formations and heavy bombers swarming over Germany and the occupied territory on a 24-hour schedule.

The air offensive against Germany is being stepped up to an unprecedented tempo with fighter formations and heavy bombers swarming over Germany and the occupied territory on a 24-hour schedule.

The night assault was launched while smoke still rose over Kassel and the Baltic port of Gdynia which were pounded Thursday night by long-range British bombers.

American flying fortresses again swept over France during the afternoon and hammered an airplane factory at Meaulte in a high-level attack. As on previous forays, all fortresses returned safely to their bases, establishing a record in aerial warfare.

A Berlin radio announcer, commenting on the mounting tempo of the Allied air offensive against Germany, said the weak defense offered the Allied attacks was due to "the necessity of holding airpower on the Russian front."

But the concentration of the Luftwaffe on the western front apparently was not helping the German offensive in Russia. Soviet communiques said the enemy has been definitely halted on the Stalingrad front while the Red army moved ahead on the Moscow sector.

Stockholm reported the Russians had launched offensives before Leningrad and south of Lake Ladoga, extending the fighting over a 2,000-mile front deep into the southern Caucasus.

Emphasizing the stiffening of the Russian defense along the Volga and Caucasus fronts, the official Tass news agency reported that Soviet heavy tanks had gone into action.

One Man's Opinion By Walter Kierman (I. N. S. Staff Writer)

If there is any doubt in your mind that the United States is going to police the whole blooming world after the war, dissolve it.

We watched the battleship Iowa hit the sea Thursday and we heard Assistant Secretary of the Navy Hard deliver a few well chosen words.

He said the Iowa not only will fight in this war but "will take her place in America's mighty seven-ocean post-war Navy."

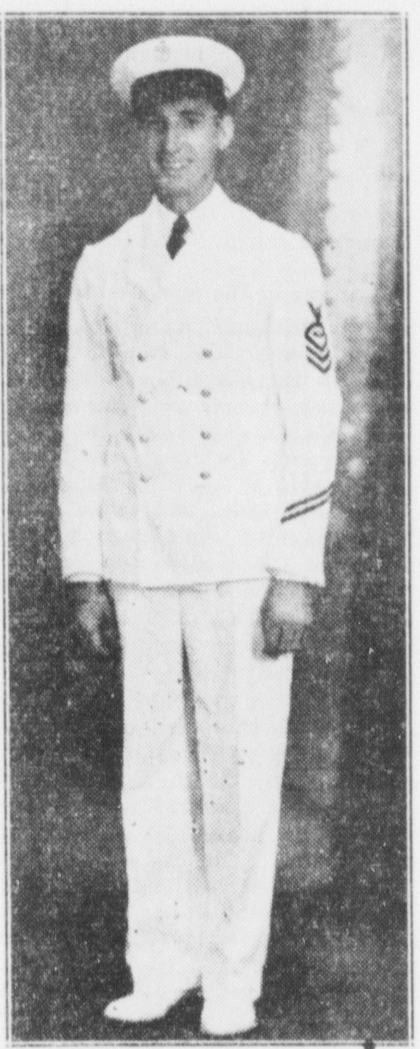

There you have it right from the feed-box. Not a one-ocean Navy, not a two-ocean Navy but a seven-ocean Navy.

We are going to open the biggest peace chain-store in history and probably the costliest.

Seven ocean navies aren't built on pennies and those hopefuls who expect to find the "good old days" just beyond the war might as well know that peace—this time—is going to cost money.

We are going to dig and dig and dig and dig and then we're going to dig some more.

Thought for the day: Uncle Sam—the John Law of the world.

BENJAMIN ZUCKER

Son of Mr. and Mrs. James Magro, Tullytown, who recently was promoted to Aviation Chief Petty Officer in the U. S. Navy. Chief Petty Officer Zucker has been in the Navy since 1931. He received training at Newport, R. I., and the Lakehurst Naval Station. Until recently he was located at the Cape May Naval Base, and now he is at an undisclosed base. While at Lakehurst, Zucker had a narrow escape with five other mates when the balloon in which they were sailing became deflated and crashed. Zucker landed in a swamp and with the exception of minor bruises was unhurt. Zucker is married to the former Miss Anna Clotti, daughter of Mr. Frank Clotti, 215 Jefferson avenue. She is residing near the base where her husband is located.

BOYS AND GIRLS EAGER TO BECOME COMMANDOS

Signed Bond Pledge Will Be The Admission "Fee" To Theatre Shows Here

AT MONDAY MATINEE

It is expected that when the forces of the Grand and Bristol Theatres are joined with other theatres throughout the country, that many Junior Commandos of Bristol and vicinity will also be aiding their country.

The opportunity for girls and boys of this area to become Junior Commandos is to be given on Monday, when at a matinee at two p. m., all girls and boys will be enabled to see a motion picture performance free of charge by presenting a signed bond pledge. The signed pledge is the promise of a relative, friend or acquaintance of the children to purchase a U. S. War Savings bond.

The girls and boys presenting such means of admission at either the Bristol or Grand Theatres on Monday will also receive their Junior Commando buttons and membership cards.

The young people of the country, together with the theatre managements and the populace in general are thus aiding in the winning of the war.

Rationing dates to remember:

Gasoline: The first page of eight coupons in your A book is good only until Sept. 21st. The second page is good for the next two months.

Sugar: Stamp No. 8 will be good for five pounds from August 23rd to October 31st. Thereafter, sugar stamps will be for even months to end the uncertainty as to their expiration date.

Pennsylvania O. P. A. officials report that up-State retailers generally are complying with ceiling price posting regulations. Lebanon emerged as the best of a dozen communities inspected with full compliance in 85 percent of the establishments checked.

Bucks County's Defense Council has what are believed to be the nation's first "baby boxes" for use in air raids. Piled up in Doylestown are packages containing the following: Nursing bottle; can of milk; two cans of strained vegetables; baby cereal, and an emergency feeding formula.

The War Labor Board advises all finance companies, auto insurance firms and dealers in new and used cars to sell for scrap all automobiles in their possession which can't be made serviceable within 60 days.

Uncle Sam will get at least $34,550 annually for the war from the Wage-Hour Division covering Pennsylvania, Delaware and part of West Virginia. The personnel pledged to invest a minimum of $2,879 monthly in war bonds and stamps.

The Office of War Information passes along a few suggestions for "idea boxes" provided by industries to help expedite production: 1—Thoroughly "sell" foremen and supervisors on the soundness of suggestion campaigns. 2—Don't place suggestion boxes near foremen's desks. Reward foremen whose sections produce the best suggestions.

Pennsylvania employers are urged by State Selective Service to push manpower inventories to determine which men can best be released for military service.

Two Personal Showers Tendered Miss Goheen

Two personal showers were arranged for Miss Thelma E. Goheen, Roosevelt street, this week.

The one occurred on Monday evening at the home of Miss Jennie Paolini, Roosevelt street, with the following guests attending: Mrs. Webster Bray, Mrs. Carl Nelson, Jr., Mrs. George Nelson, Mrs. John Austin, Mrs. James Mild, Mrs. Harry Goheen, Mrs. Anthony Paolini, the Misses Doris Pearson, Stella Kurko, Betty Mandio, Caroline Nocito, Evelyn Streeter, and Mildred Goheen.

On Tuesday evening, Mrs. William Sykes, Washington street, entertained at her home a number of guests in honor of Miss Goheen.

ALL TEACHERS BUT ONE TO RETURN TO YARDLEY

Thomas A. Greene, Jr., Will Succeed George Rishell,
Who Goes to Newtown

RENOVATIONS MADE

YARDLEY, Aug. 29—With but one exception teachers of Yardley school will return to their duties for the new term on Tuesday, September 1st.

George Rishell, of Selmsgrove, is leaving Yardley schools. He has been teaching shop in the local schools. Mr. Rishell will be engaged on a full time basis by Newtown high school. He will be succeeded by Thomas A. Greene, Jr., a graduate of Millersville State Teachers College.

Extensive renovations have been undertaken in some of the class rooms this summer and much of the building has been repainted and decorated. Movable tables and chairs, the most modern type of classroom furniture, is being installed in the first and fourth grade rooms. The home economics room and shop have been improved, with a new serving counter in the former, dividing the room into two sections, a kitchen and dining or classroom. The new arrangement will facilitate serving whenever dinners are held there, and also provides space which can be used for classroom work apart from the kitchen when desired. A teacher's meeting will be held on Monday afternoon, August 31st, with classes meeting for the first time at 8:55 a. m. Tuesday. This is somewhat earlier than usual, for the school has not often opened before Labor Day. With world conditions as they are, however, school officials thought the earlier opening advisable, so that they will be able to comply with whatever may be required of the school system in the way of registrations or other war work without seriously delaying the ending of the term in June.

Members of the faculty include Warren R. Smith, supervising principal, who will teach history and problems of democracy; Michael F. Derrick, social studies and physical education; Clarence Rumpf, music; Miss Betty M. Smith, home economics; Mrs. Robert Hassell, English, Latin and French; Miss Helen L. Johnson, commercial; Mrs. Harry Holsclaw, English and arithmetic; Robert W. Hassell, science and mathematics; Miss Doris Kirby, art; Miss Lillian Groner, First; Miss Doris Knauss, Second and Third; Miss Margaret Doyle, Third and Fourth; Mrs. Thelma Foley, Fifth, and Miss Gladys Mericle, Sixth.

Three members of the faculty, Mr. Smith, Mr. Derrick, and Mr. Rumpf, hold degrees of Master of Education from Temple University, which is also represented on the faculty by Miss Knauss and Miss Smith. East Stroudsburg State Teachers College is also well represented. Miss Groner, Miss Doyle and Miss Mericle studied there. Mrs. Hassell, Miss Johnson and Mrs. Holsclaw received their training at Bloomsburg. Mr. Hassell at Ursinus; Mrs. Foley at Mansfield, and Miss Kirby at Edinboro.

Name Dr. R. C. Marker Examiner for Board Two

SOUTH LANGHORNE, Aug. 29—Dr. Richard C. Marker has been named medical examiner for the Local Selective Service Board No. 2, Newtown.

Dr. Marker replaces Dr. William L. Noe, Langhorne, who in September will enter the U. S. Army Medical Corps.

The local physician expects to enter upon his duties in the near future. On Tuesday next 62 men will be given their final physical examinations at the Philadelphia reception center.

Feasterville Schools Are To Open on September 8th

FEASTERVILLE, Aug. 29—Feasterville grade school will begin its new school year on Tuesday, September 8th, at nine o'clock. The first session will end at noon.

Parents of new pupils should see that birth and vaccination certificates must be at school on the first day. No pupils will be admitted without these certificates. Only children who are six years of age before February 1, 1943, are eligible.

The teaching staff includes the Misses Worstall, Bond, Seidt, and Mrs. Rhoads.

This year the school will continue to aid the war effort by selling stamps and bonds, and by salvage work.

Tells of Northern Lights, Hiking Trips and Walrus Steaks

Back from two years spent in many parts of Alaska Staff Sergeant John J. Sak is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sak, 339 Taft street, before entering the Officers Candidates School at Fort Monmouth, N. J.

A member of the Signal Corps, U. S. Army, under the Alaska Defense Command, he had the privilege of spending 40 hours in the air as he travelled from one point to another in that territory in line with his duties. He was as far north as Fairbanks, to Nome in the northwest, and southwest to Dutch Harbor. Some time was also spent at Juneau and at points in the vicinity of Anchorage. Most recently he was at Kodiak. As a radio operator, Staff Sgt. Sak's work took him in that capacity to many posts to help check on various stations.

BENSALEM MAN SEEKS A DIVORCE FROM HIS WIFE

Charles Hogarth Starts Action
Against Mrs. Marie
Hogarth

THE MENDELSON CASE

DOYLESTOWN, Aug. 29—A Bensalem Township man is seeking a divorce from his wife. The libellant is Charles S. Hogarth, Newportville Road, Bensalem. In the action it is stated that the two were wed in a ceremony performed by Justice of the Peace James Laughlin at Croydon, October 13, 1934, and that they separated April 11, 1936. The last known address of Mrs. Hogarth was Willowood, N. J.

Less than a month after they were married, Leon J. Mendelson, New Britain township, charges that his wife, Barbara B. Mendelson, deserted him, in a libel in divorce filed in the office of Prothonotary Homer S. Wentz, here.

The libellant and respondent, who also lives in New Britain township, were married June 29, 1940, by Justice of the Peace W. Carlisle Hobensack and the respondent is alleged to have deserted her husband July 23, 1940.

Following a decision by Justice of the Peace Linford D. Gross, of Blooming Glen, in favor of the plaintiff, Leonard lies, also of Blooming Glen, in the amount of $125 and the costs of prosecution, Clarence Loux, Jr., Dublin, has filed an appeal in the Prothonotary's Office here.

The appeal grows out of a two-car collision on the Blooming Glen-Hill town road, near Blooming Glen, March 19th, when cars driven by the plaintiff and defendant collided at an intersection.

Lies alleges his car was damaged to the extent of $125 and Loux failed to attend a hearing before the Justice of the Peace.

LATEST NEWS BULLETINS

Soviets Furiously Attack Nazis

Moscow—In one of the bloodiest battles of all history, Soviet forces today furiously counter-attacked northwest of Stalingrad to drive back Nazi tanks and troops which had penetrated defense lines in depth.

The front line correspondent of Pravda, Communist party newspaper, said that the Nazis had been thrown back several kilometers—three-fifths of a mile—northwest of the city.

Mounds of dead littered the battlefield as the Nazis strove to press forward regardless of casualties, but the Russians were equal to every question asked of them.

Ever-increasing German hordes poured across the Don to reinforce depleted divisions. The great battle is being fought on flat table land between the Don and the Volga, and the lack of natural defenses accounts for the heavy casualties on both sides.

Meanwhile, the Russians continued battering at the gates of Rzhev, pivotal city on the central front some 135 miles west and north of Moscow, and there were reports of a growing Soviet offensive on the Leningrad front.

Nazi dive-bombers continued their block-by-block assaults on the city of Stalingrad, seeking to destroy the Volga metropolis methodically, after a pre-arranged pattern.

Soviet Troops Capture Rzhev

New York—Hard-fighting Soviet troops on the central front have captured the Rzhev airport and cut an important road link in two German places, the British radio said today in a broadcast heard by CBS.

Bombers Raid Helsinki

London—At least 60 bombers carried out a night raid on Helsinki, Finnish capital, the Berlin radio reported today according to Reuters. The broadcast gave no details of the raid.

Exchange—British—Telegraph quoted the Helsinki radio as declaring that Soviet bombers carried out the assault.

Bury Duke of Kent

London—With the kings of England, Norway, Greece, Yugoslavia and Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands in attendance, the body of the Duke of Kent was laid to rest today in historic St. George's Chapel.

The Duchess of Kent, formerly Princess Marina of Greece, was near collapse at the funeral service but bravely pulled herself together.

Bucks Co. Knights Templar To Take Part in Service

Bucks county Knights Templar will take part in the big outdoor patriotic service to be held Sunday afternoon, October 4th, at three o'clock in Independence Square, 6th and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia. The affair is under the auspices of Division No. 1, Knights Templar of Pennsylvania.

Representatives of the armed forces, municipal governments and all Masonic and affiliated organizations will be represented. This is a call to all Masons to pay homage to those men and women who are serving in the armed forces.

The line of parade will leave Reynold Plaza, Broad and Filbert streets, Philadelphia, at 2:15 p. m., and proceed to Independence Square.

ST. LUKE'S SCHOOL TO OPEN ON SEPTEMBER 8

Kindergarten and Elementary
Grades to Resume at That Time for Term

HOLIDAYS ARE LISTED

CROYDON, Aug. 29—St. Luke's Lutheran School, State Road and Excelsior avenue, Croydon, will open Tuesday, September 8th, at nine a. m. Kindergarten classes will resume sessions on the same day as the elementary grades, and all pupils are asked to report at nine a. m.

Children four and five years old will be received in the kindergarten. Pupils entering school for the first time should present birth and vaccination certificates on the first day of school.

The school staff will be as follows: Mrs. Edith Findlay, kindergarten; Edwin Weinrich will teach the subjects of history, health, arithmetic, beginners' reading, the Rev. Theodore Kohlmeier will teach religion, language, arts and lower grade social studies.

Music will be added for all interested. A remedial reading period will be conducted each Tuesday and Thursday at 3:30 p. m.

The school calendar sets forth the following special holidays and occasions: Thanksgiving, November 25th to 30th; Christmas, December 24th to January 4th; Easter, April 23rd to 27th; closing date, June 4th.

Seventeen Complete First Aid Course at Croydon

CROYDON, Aug. 29—A class of 17 completed the standard first-aid course on Thursday evening at the Zone 3 headquarters, here.

Those completing this course are: Stella and Paul Lipiarski, Helen and Edward Kroonze, Helen and Timothy Coyne, Dorothy Wunsch, Marie Tregl, Sadie Keller, Retta Herrman, Paul Marsh, George Bollard, George Lawton, Arthur McCarthy, Edward Young, Frank Weisinger and Edward Curry.

Mrs. Kay Wisler was the instructor.

TO COLLECT SCRAP

A Junior Commando group has been formed to canvass Cornwells Manor and Echo Beach to collect scrap. The Commandos would appreciate the co-operation of all residents.

FURLOUGH ENDS

P. F. C. Pasquale C. Squillace has returned to Berlin, Md., after spending a ten day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Squillace, and with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Roberts, Pond street.

Women of Croydon Preserve A Large Variety of Foods

CROYDON, Aug. 29.—The women who started canning for the emergency food bank of Croydon last week, continued their activities this week with a grand total of 68 quarts, 42 pints of apple sauce; 14 quarts peaches, and 93 bottles of tomato juice. The tomato juice is intended for baby use only.

The canning is being done in the kitchen of the Wilkinson Memorial Methodist Church, State Road. Those helping with the work: Mrs. James T. Harrington, Mrs. Thomas Dolde, Mrs. Alfred Sharples, Mrs. LeRoy Peters, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Sr., Mrs. Richard Johnson, Mrs. Walter Leek, Mrs. Edward Brenner, Mrs. Margaret Campbell, Mrs. Daniel Davis, Mrs. Philip Ahler.

Those donating fruits, vegetables, jars, etc.: Mrs. William Pryor, Mrs. Arthur Scull, Mrs. Ira Brown, Mrs. A. Farley, Mrs. Herman Wilcock, Mrs. Morris Shifferstine, Mrs. LeRoy Peters, Mrs. James Laughlin, Mrs. Harry Frederick, E. Jaisle, Mrs. Alfred Sharples, Mrs. George Fleming, Mrs. Jeanie Smith, "Jack" Harris, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. Edward Brenner, Mrs. Philip Ahler. An additional stove for the canning was loaned by Ray Sattler.

Several donations of money for supplies have been received from localities.

Today's Quiet Moment

(By the Rev. James R. Gailey)

Pastor, Bristol Presbyterian Church

Lord Jesus, our Redeemer, be thou ever present with us today. Thou as the all-seeing Saviour art acquainted with all our ways, nothing is unknown to thee. Thou knowest how temptations beset us on all sides. Thou knowest how doubts and misgivings fill our hearts with distrust. Thou knowest how the cares of life make us anxious for the morrow and forgetful of thee and thy glorious promises. Deliver us from these frailties of the flesh and enable us to be more constant in our faith in thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

These women are not connected with any other food canning project. They have decided to call themselves, for the duration, "The Willing Workers of Croydon." The food is turned over to the local food bank, which is under the supervision of Mrs. Frederick.

Canning will be done each Wednesday at the same location, until further notice. Anyone wishing to donate in any way, or wishing further information, may call Mrs. Philip Ahler, Bristol 7424. More women are needed to help.

TO MY FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS:

I wish to announce that I have taken over the AMOCO SERVICE STATION, COR. MARKET AND BRISTOL PIKE, as of Aug. 28th.

We will be able to render a complete service for your car - - - Washing, Greasing, Minor Repairs, Polishing, and 30-Minute Battery Charging.

We have taken over the agency for United States Tires and will have a complete stock of Passenger and Truck Tires. We will also have the necessary facilities to render a quick Recapping and Vulcanizing service.

Thank you for your patronage of the past. Why not stop in and see me soon?

LEW PALMER
(Former Mgr. Dunlop Tires)
